NOTRE DAME, Ind., June 7 .- Notre Dame went down in a hard defeat before the Beloit team on Cartier Field to-day.

The game was heart rending from the rooters' standpoint. Notre Dame had a number of fine chances to score, but each time a bad example of base running and a little fanning by the men who were expected to do the big hitting settled things for Notre Dame. The only excuse that can be offered for the game that was swon four or five times, when it was finally lost, was the ragged work in the infield. The efforts of Ruelbach in the box were superb and with any kind of support he would have won the game. Morey made good in his position, came after Indiana practically had the game won. The contest was ragged, many of the errors being inexcusable. Purdue's bad innings were the fifth and seventh, and Indiana did the aerial act in the seventh

American Association Standing.

Louisville, 4; St. Paul, 1...... A young man with a powerful right arm and ability to make a baseball curve around for Kansas City against Indianapolis yesterday afternoon. His name is Durham and he has been a terror to Indianapolis this tall, 4; off Curtiss, 8. Wild pitch—Cristall. season. He seemed to possess some sort of hypnotic power and would fool the Hoosier batters as they came to the plate, but they evened up what old scores they had against him and with ten hits, one of gers, they batted out a victory by a score of 6 to 2. The Hoosiers played championship ball and had a license to win the 'last game of the series and make it three out of the four games played. Cromley and Durham labmen and the former had the best of it. He allowed the Cowboys only six hits and in only one inning, when he became just a trifle generous, did he permit the visitors to hit him often enough to score. It was in the third round that the Blues scored their only two runs of the game. In the ninth the visitors tried to rally, but it was no use as a fast double play deprived them of what chance they had to add to

The feature of the game was the batting of the Hoosiers, especially that of Mc-Creery, who drove in the first run of the game with a single and later shipped a long one to deep right center for a home run. Magoon and Hess also did good willow work while Heyden, Hogriever, Dickey and Cromley registered in the base hit

The prettiest piece of fielding was contributed by Lewee, of the Blues. In the eighth inning Carr sent a fly to short left field and it looked good for a base, but Lucky Lewee shot out his right hand and caught it. Dickey and Hess were so far off their respective bases that a double play would have followed had Lewee realized at first that he had nabbed the sphere, but by the time that he came back to earth the runners had returned to second and first. The Hoosiers took the lead in the first inning. After Carr had retired Magoon hit to left for a couple of bases, and Mc-Creery's single scored Magoon. McCreery advanced to third when Lewee fumbled Heydon's chance and when Heydon pllfered second McCreery scored on Lewee's wild throw to the plate.

Brilliant fielding prevented Indianapolis from scoring in the fourth. Heydon singled and Hogriever hit for two bases. Ryan heade gathered in Dickey's line fly and Hess hit week. to Lewee, Heydon being caught at the plate. Cromley then fanned. Carr walked in the fifth and McCreery hit to center for a home run. The last two came in the sixth. With two out Hess hit down the third base line for two bases and Cromley's hit scored him. Carr walked and Magoon's hit scored Cromley. That was the last run of the game. BEN D. CROSE.
